AT 13 DEVONSHIRE SQUARE

CONFERENCES WITH CONVICTION

Elegantly appointed and decorated, the rooms offer surroundings that are both beautiful and intimate - found, tucked away, just yards from Liverpool Street Station.

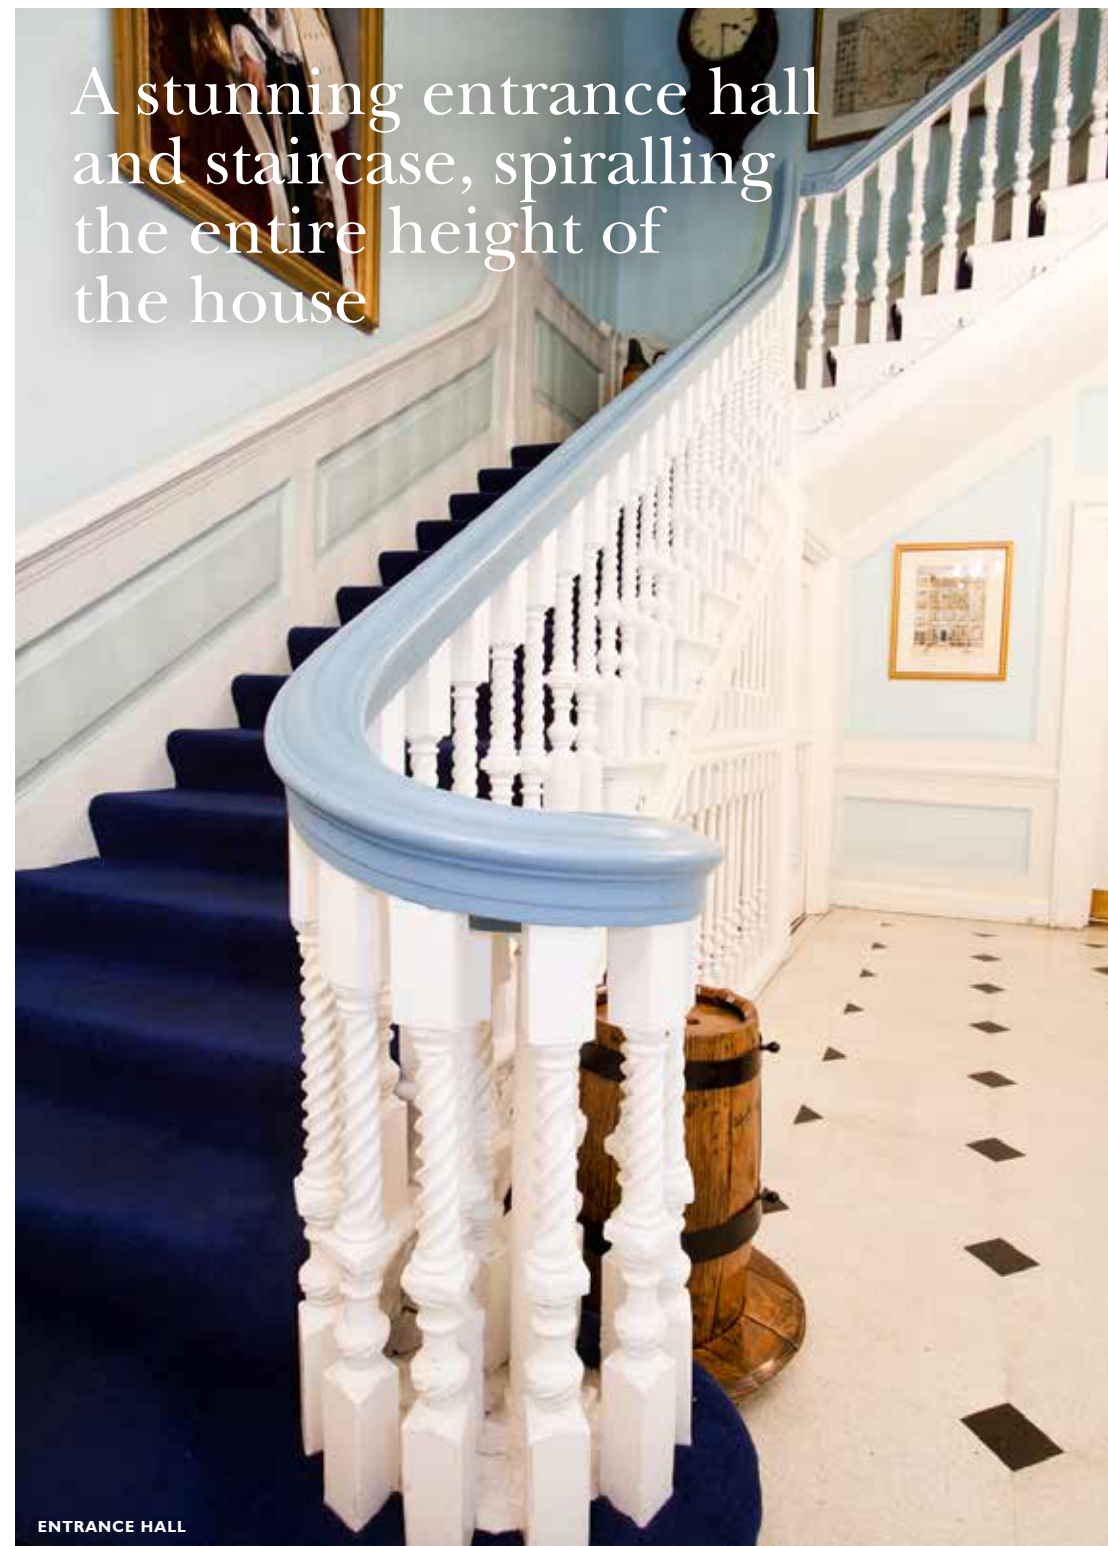

The house is a late 17th Century merchant's house, built on land that once formed part of the gardens of Devonshire House. The rooms offer surroundings that are both beautiful and intimate, Coopers' Hall is very popular with clients wishing to hire two floors exclusively, where their guests are guaranteed the undivided attention of dedicated hospitality professionals.

As an exquisitely preserved example of a pre-Georgian town house in the heart of the City of London, with a beautiful entrance hall and magnificent staircase spiralling up the entire height of the house, the initial impressions of the Hall are of sophistication and grandness on a domestic scale.

The Court Room and the Dining Room are available for individual hire; the Dining Room with a seating capacity of 32 and standing capacity of 50. The Court Room offers a marvellous boardroom-style meeting space which seats 20 and has the capacity for up to 35 delegates for a reception. Both spaces are flooded with natural daylight and the house offers complimentary WiFi throughout.

Retaining some of the atmosphere of a family residence, it affords a convenient Square Mile location and a gracious gathering place in which to continue the tradition of exquisite hospitality and meetings.
